

Whilst maintaining traditional values the Company continues to adapt to the changing needs of its customers. Listening to its homebuyers and researching new products enables it to offer the latest in layout, appearance and specification.

Jones Homes provides a wide range of house designs to suit a variety of lifestyles and its portfolio comprises luxury apartments, mews-style homes, town houses and detached properties. The wide experience gained in the new homes market has led to diversification into the retirement homes sector and social housing, both directly and through partnerships with local authorities and housing associations.